

Get ready for success with ISE: Integrated Skills in English

English language skills for study

An ISE qualification provides valuable evidence of your ability to communicate effectively in English. Preparing for Trinity's Integrated Skills in English (ISE) exams helps you develop the English language communication skills you need for your future. This is because the type of tasks you will practise for the exam are also relevant for college, university and for employability purposes.

How do I get an ISE qualification?

There are two exam modules you need to pass to get an ISE qualification:

Reading & Writing

Module certificate shows:

- ▶ Reading result
- ▶ Writing result

Speaking & Listening

Module certificate shows:

- ▶ Speaking result
- ▶ Listening result

You need to pass BOTH modules to get the ISE qualification certificate

You can take both exams of an ISE level at the same time – or build your ISE qualification over time – by taking each exam when you are ready. Ask your tutor or visit our website for details: www.trinitycollege.com/ISE

“I think the test was really interesting, useful and a great chance to show my skills in English”

Choose your level

ISE qualifications are available at five levels, from beginner to advanced, so there is an exam suitable for every stage of your learning.

ISE level	ISE Foundation	ISE I	ISE II	ISE III	ISE IV*
CEFR level	A2	B1	B2	C1	C2

CEFR: Common European Framework of Reference | *ISE IV has a different format – see www.trinitycollege.com/ISE for details
